If this is your child's first show - congratulations! It's a really exciting time for all involved. Parents can sometimes be nervous about the two later evenings - we would like to reassure you that the students manage well with the performance times and whilst they will be tired afterwards, the experience is a wonderful and positive learning opportunity. Students can be collected and taken home during the interval which is normally around one hour after the performance has begun. If you are watching the show, students are welcome to stay backstage until the end of the show and appear in the finale.
